SB 1096 - Guardianship Registry
 This bill requires all guardians in Texas to be registered with the Judicial Branch Certification Commission (JBCC) prior to the appointment of a guardianship. SB 1096 also directs the JBCC to provide guardians with proper training. The bill also requires the JBCC to obtain a criminal history record of an individual seeking appointment as a guardian or temporary guardian and, upon request, to provide it to the clerk of the county having venue over the appointment of a guardian. The JBCC is currently working with DPS, initiating rule development with the Texas Supreme Court, developing a guardian training module with the National Center for State Courts, and building our new licensing database. We will also work with the courts and clerks as we proceed with the implementation on June 1, 2018.
