Proclamation:
Child Abuse Prevention and Awareness Month, April 2022

WHEREAS, a total of 68,517 victims of child abuse or neglect were confirmed in Texas in FY 2021;

WHEREAS, each day in Texas, 188 children are confirmed victims of child abuse;

WHEREAS, every 8 minutes in Texas, there is at least one confirmed case of child abuse;

WHEREAS, every week in Texas, on average, more than 4 children die from abuse or neglect;

WHEREAS, in FY 2021 in Texas, a total of 45,870 children were in the legal care of the state for their own protection.

WHEREAS, in Texas and throughout the nation, there are many individuals and agencies who are working to prevent child abuse, to raise awareness about child abuse, and to help the child victims;

WHEREAS, in fiscal year 2021, the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services served a total of 253,274 children who, by no fault of their own, became involved with the DFPS' Child Protective Services due to allegations and confirmed cases of child abuse or neglect.

WHEREAS, in Hunt County in FY 2021, Child Protective Services conducted 724 investigations of child abuse and/or neglect;

WHEREAS, in Hunt County, Child Protective Services worked with, on average, 125 children and their families each month of 2021;

WHEREAS, in 2021 in Texas, there were total of 10,920 Court Appointed Special Advocates® – or CASA volunteers – who are assigned by the court to speak up for a child's best interest,

WHEREAS, last year, CASA volunteers involved with one of the 72 CASA programs in Texas advocated for 28,543 children in foster care system, giving over 2 million volunteer hours to serve these child victims;

WHEREAS, in Hunt County, CASA volunteers advocated for 242 children last year, serving 100 percent of the Hunt County children who were placed into the foster care system;

WHEREAS, CASA for Hunt County volunteers gave 4,748 hours and traveled 27,096 miles in order to serve the children in which they are appointed, saving Hunt County taxpayers about $110,000 with volunteer services;

WHEREAS, Children's Advocacy Center – CAC – is the front door for the child abuse investigation process to provide a collaborative response to children impacted by abuse; last year in Texas 71 Children's Advocacy Centers across the state served more than 61,891 children each year;

WHEREAS, in 2021, approximately every 15 hours there was a confirmed child sexual abuse case;

WHEREAS, 98 percent of the child victims knew their alleged perpetrator.

WHEREAS, every child through the CAC has a chance for their voice to be heard and the healing process to begin; and in Hunt County, CAC staff and volunteers served 687 children last year;

WHEREAS, child abuse and neglect is a serious problem affecting every segment of our community, and finding solutions requires input and action from everyone in our community; and

WHEREAS, our children are our most valuable resources and will shape the future of Texas; and

WHEREAS, child abuse can have long-term psychological, emotional, and physical effects that can have lifelong consequences for victims of abuse; and

WHEREAS, protective factors are conditions that reduce or eliminate risk and promote the social, emotional, and developmental well-being of children;

WHEREAS, effective child abuse prevention activities succeed because of the meaningful connections and partnerships created between child welfare, education, health, community- and faith-based organizations, businesses and law enforcement agencies; and

WHEREAS, communities must make every effort to promote programs and activities that benefit children and their families;

WHEREAS, we acknowledge that we must work together as a community to increase awareness about child abuse and contribute to promote the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable, nurturing environment;

WHEREAS, prevention remains the best defense for our children and families;

WHEREAS, the impact of abuse and neglect has long-term personal, economic and social costs; therefore, hurting Texas' future;

WHEREAS, CASA for Hunt County, Hunt County Children's Advocacy Center, Hunt County's Child Protective Services, foster parents, teachers, counselors, attorneys, judges and others work to ensure that children in our community have the opportunity to grow up in safe, loving permanent homes;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bobby W. Stovall, County Judge for Hunt County, Texas, do hereby proclaim April 2022 as NATIONAL CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION and AWARENESS MONTH in Hunt County and urge all citizens to recognize this month by dedicating ourselves to the task of improving the quality of life for all children and families.
