

19.397

WHEREAS, Cheyenne Little's life was tragically taken April 14th, 2021. Her death is the first publicly acknowledge Fentanyl Poisoning death in Hunt County.

WHEREAS, In order to honor their daughter's legacy, Cheyenne's family has created weare3FP.org, Fiercely Fighting Fentanyl Poisoning to bring awareness to the deadly effects of fentanyl poisoning.

WHEREAS, opening the eyes of our community to this deadly drug may prevent one death. In hopes of keeping parents and loved ones from experiencing the same deep grief and pain, then Cheyenne's death will not be in vain.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bobby W. Stovall, County Judge of Hunt County, Texas do hereby proclaim the day of April 14th as

"DON'T CHEY AWAY IT'S NOT A LITTLE PROBLEM FENTANYL POISONING AWARENESS DAY"

And encourage all our citizens to help spread the message that fentanyl poisoning is coming after our children, and it is up to us to do our due diligence to expose its lethal dangers.

Hunt County Judge Bobby W. Stovall

Absent
Commissioner Mark Hutchins

Commissioner David Monroe

Commissioner Garry Smith

Commissioner Steven Harrison