BECKY LANDRUM County Clerk, Hunt County, Tex. by

Volunteer Proclamation

WHEREAS, volunteering of one's time and resources is a fundamental part of our county's tradition and is essential to its spirit, and;

WHEREAS, it is increasingly evident that our nation's greatest resource is its people, and;

WHEREAS, volunteers have shown that they truly care and share generously of themselves, and;

WHEREAS, volunteerism plays a crucial role in expanding influence and access for all Texans through civic engagement, and;

WHEREAS, volunteers in Hunt County contribute to our shared vision of societal well-being, bridge service gaps, and address the needs of our community, and;

WHEREAS, volunteers in Hunt County AgriLife Extension service programs have been an instrumental resource in reaching a broader audience, ensuring program relevance, and communicating the value of education and service to the residents of Hunt County, and;

WHEREAS, volunteerism directly reflects the democratic principles upon which this nation was founded in that everyone, regardless of circumstances, position, or other factors can volunteer, and;

WHEREAS, we are seeking even more contributions of human resources in volunteerism and better application of these valuable contributions:

THEREFORE, we wish to honor and to thank the dedicated Volunteers of Hunt County AgriLife Extension of Hunt County who give so freely of their valuable time, energy, and abilities by proclaiming this week of April 20-26, 2026, to be officially designated as National Volunteer Week in Hunt County.

And in doing so, I call all citizens of Hunt County to help renew and sustain the spirit and vitality of this great nation by committing a portion of their time to address the needs of their communities through voluntary action.

Signed this 28th day of March 2026 by the Hunt County Commissioners Court:

Commissioner Daren Money

Judge Bobby W. Stovall

Commissioner Garry Smith

Commissioner David Monroe
